

CALL FOR GRANTS for ICR ANNUAL CONFERENCE, TBILISI, GEORGIA, 2020

To encourage ICR members to participate in ICR's 2020 annual conference, we announce 2 Travel Grants. The maximum amount of subsidy is 750 euros for each grant. Preference will be given to young museum professionals of 35 years or under and from ICOM Categories of countries 3 and 4. The purpose of the grants is to assist with the conference fee, travel / airfare expenses (economy fare) or accommodation.

Applicant must fulfill the following criteria:

1. Be a member of ICR in good standing (please include ICOM number in your letter of application).
2. Write an essay of at least 150 words (300 words max.) explaining why you want to attend the Annual Conference. Explain other funding sources received.
3. Members who have not previously benefitted from ICR grants.
4. Agree to present a paper in English related to the conference theme (please see the Call for papers 2020).
5. To submit a written report regarding the experience for the ICR Newsletter after the conference. The report must be in English and submitted no later than 45 days after the conference.
6. To submit a report to colleagues at home about the experience, after the conference, with a copy to ICR.

To apply, send a CV with a cover letter explaining your cause and a copy of your paper. Applications should be submitted before 15th of June 2020 to Noga Raved, ICR Treasurer, noga.icomicr@gmail.com
Huang Lei, ICR Secretary, huanglei97@aliyun.com with the title "ICR grant application"

All applicants will be informed of the outcome by the 30th of June.

In the event of an online conference, Grant winners will be exempt from paying conference fees and the grant balance will be saved for grants in the years to come.