

26th ICOM General Conference

The Power of Museums

20-28 August 2022

Prague, Czech Republic

For the first time ever, four important committees of ICOM join efforts in Prague to organise a super conference encompassing regional museums (ICR), university museums and collections (UMAC), natural history museums (NATHIST) and museums and collections of ethnography (ICME). From four angles we will discuss the theme 'THE POWER OF MUSEUMS: SUSTAINABILITY'.

This will be a hybrid conference, aligned with ICOM 2022. Registrations, fees, accommodation and general information is provided at the ICOM 2022 website.

General Information on ICOM 2022 Prague

- ICOM 2022 Booklet

Important Dates

- 22-23 August: Joint Annual Conferences of ICR, UMAC, NATHIST, ICME
- 25 August: ICR off-site meeting

Preliminary Program

- ICR-UMAC-NATHIST-ICME (soon)
- ICR Off-Site Meeting (soon)

Call for Proposals (soon)

Travel Grants (soon)

ICR will award a number of grants for young museum professional (till age of 35)

Useful Information (soon)

Guidelines for speakers, instructions for posters, maps and locations, etc.

Committees

- Organising Committee: Dorit Wolenitz (Israel, Chair NATHIST), Irena Žmuc (Slovenia, Chair ICR), Marta Lourenço (Portugal, Chair UMAC), Ralf Čeplak Mencin (Slovenia, ICME).
- Program Committee: Andrew Simpson (Australia, UMAC), Christel Schollaardt (The Netherlands, NATHIST), Dorit Wolenitz (Israel, NATHIST), Fiona R. Cameron (Australia, ICME), Huang Lei (China, ICR), Irena Žmuc (Slovenia, ICR), Marta Lourenço (Portugal, UMAC), Peter Ride (UK, ICME), Phaedra Fang (Taiwan, NATHIST), Ralf Čeplak Mencin (Slovenia, ICME).
- ICR general host: ICR member Lubomir Andel
- ICR hosts off-site meetings:

Museum of Tómaš Garrigue Masaryk in Rakovník and Láány

Regional Museum in Jílnové

ICR Plenary Meeting

Acknowledgements (soon)